

Schwarz selected yet again

RICK Schwarz, 15, has amassed an impressive list of achievements during his three years with Cherrybrook's Greenway Giants. They include representing the NSW team to compete in the nationals, being selected in the NSW winter development squad, competing in the state cup, playing for NSW in New Zealand and joining the NSW team on its tour to Beijing for a junior baseball tournament.

Rick is one of the Giants' top players and has just been selected in the NSW Under 16s side which will compete at the Under 16s national championships in Geelong in January.
